From Your Library

The McNeeley Library in conjunction with Maureen Rice’s Fashion Group, hosted an “Afternoon Tea and Fashion Show” at the IA Club, Sunday, April 28th. Kevin McDonough provided lunch for the ladies, served by charming students from Bay Village and Olmsted Falls High Schools. Scones provided by Donna Urmin; cheese cake by Colleen Hansen.

A repertoire of harp music by Harpist Gina Cameron Mulh, Conservatory of Music, Baldwin Wallace University, accompanied the lunch. Following the luncheon, members and friends of the IA Club, modeled fashion provided by Chico’s. Annie O’Donnell chaired the event. Thanks to all who participated and assisted us. It was a success because of you.

Good health, good reading,

With the Club’s Family Picnic fast approaching, we will focus on the individuals that make this event fun and worthwhile attending, Christie Cruz and Heather Harvey.

Christie and Heather work together as a team, not only with the picnic, but also with the St. Patrick’s Day ad booklet, and our Annual Raffle. Not only do they chair these events, they are always willing to help in other areas of the club where help is needed.

They are always looking for people to help with their events. Consider volunteering with the Club Picnic which will take place in a couple of months.

Give either Christie (216-906-0663) or Heather (216-440-0801) a call. They would love to have you on their team.

If anyone is interested in learning about European River Cruises, contact Marge Flynn at (330) 273-4325.

If there is enough interest in this endeavor, the IA will sponsor a short program on these River Cruises.
